

“My Hero” - Questionnaire

In light of the story you read on the website....

What qualities of the hero are expressed through their story?

What did you connect with in their story?

A few words about their character

(Character traits that I identified or connected with, hobbies and activities they had, things that were important to them, or anything else you feel is important to express)

If I were to meet the hero I read about, what would I want to tell them?
