

“My Hero” Activity and Content Suggestions

1. School with values: a school installation or poster, featuring a hero that can be changed each week.
2. Research work following the heroes: expand on the hero's qualities - his/her most prominent feature or a specific feature expressed in their story.
3. Build a great personality: mark a key sentence from the story / a sentence said by the hero - an inspiring sentence, and prepare a special collection or school decoration.
4. Project for Yom Hazikaron: take an inspiring sentence from a hero's story, draw their picture and distribute that together with flags or flowers for Memorial Day.
5. Motivation and meaning: write an inspiring quote or sentence from a hero's story on letterhead or a notebook, as motivation for students before the summer break.
6. Rosh Hashanah project: What changed in us, following the war? Dreaming of the year ahead, create a greeting card for Rosh Hashanah featuring a quote from, or a motto or value of one of the fallen.
7. Heroism on the battlefield and heroism at home: Internalizing stories about the heroes, marking qualities that were discovered on the battlefield, and translating those qualities into life at home - what qualities will we adopt in the classroom, school, family, or nationally. You can draw, make a poster, or decorate any choice sentence with stickers.
